DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.

CENSUS OFFICE.

Unalaska, Alaska, July 31, 1900.

William A. Kelly,

Special Agent, 12th Census,

Sitka,

Alaska.

Sir:-

Appointed under the provisions of section 7 of the act entitled "An Act to provide for taking the Twelfth and subsequent censuses," approved March 3, 1899, and being sworn and commissioned, I have enumerated the population inhabiting census-district No. 19, Territory of Alaska, and gathered upon the schedules of the office all applicable statistics.

In the district bounded on the East by the Unimak, and on the West by the Umnak passes, the white population is mainly transient. Few by marrying native women have effected permanent settlement.

Japanese and Chinese reside here under similar conditions; mere temporary employees of commercial establishments.

The principle native settlement in the district is at Unalaska; those of less importance being respectively Makushin, Chernofsky, Kashigo, Akutan, Morka (new and old village). Now places of modest pretentions, though within this decade centers of importance, stimulated by rival trading-agencies, of whose commercial activity, to day

TWELFTH CENSUS OF THE
UNITED STATES.

WILLIAM A. KELLY,
SPECIAL AGENT.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,

CENSUS OFFICE.

Unalaska, Alaska, July 31, 1900.

William A. Kelly,

Special Agent, 12th Census,

Sitka,

Alaska.

Sir:-

Appointed under the provisions of section 7 of the act entitled "An Act to provide for taking the Twelfth and subsequent censuses," approved March 3, 1899, and being sworn and commissioned, I have enumerated the population inhabiting census-district No. 19, Territory of Alaska, and gathered upon the schedules of the office all applicable statistics.

In the district bounded on the East by the Unimak, and on the West by the Umnak passes, the white population is mainly transient. Few by marrying native women have effected permanent settlement.

Japanese and Chinese reside here under similar conditions; mere temporary employees of commercial establishments.

The principle native settlement in the district is at Unalaska; those of less importance being respectively Makushin, Chernofsky, Kashigo, Akutan, Berka (new and old village). Now places of modest pretentions, though within this decade centers of importance, stimulated by rival trading-agencies, of whose commercial activity, to day nothing remains but abandoned and decaying buildings.

With the passing of the Sea-otter, and the domestication of the Fox, the skill of the Aleutian in hunting and trapping ~~in hunting and trapping~~ has lost its value, and isolated upon his islands he is out of touch with present conditions.

His spiritual wants are attended to by the Greek-Catholic Church at the different settlements supporting chapels, the neat and wellkept appearance of which contrasts radically with the sombre, colorless squalor of an Aleutian village. Since discovery of these islands by early Russians, the native has been the constant ward and absolute subject of government-fostered monopolies. His individuality, in the process, has been modified or lost. Lost or reduced is, also, his and his country's economic value by the exhaustion of his hunting-grounds. Numerically he is decreasing. Physically and morally degenerating, and his extinction as an Ethnographical unity is at hand.

The commercial interests of the district are centered at Dutch-harbor, evolved from a mere station of the North American Commercial Company into an important coaling and supply-depot; inviting by its exceptional harbor and docking facilities, the entry of all northbound shipping.

Industrially the district is of little importance. Agriculture has barely attained the primitive stage of desultory gardening.

Fishing is prosecuted for local consumption only. Mining, though still in its incipiency, holds forth some promises. The Sulphur-beds of Mount Makushin, and a gold-quarz-lode at Hunts-ville are, at present, undergoing systematic investigation.

An effective, well-attended Public-school is located at Unalaska, so is, also, a Mission-school, an appendage of the Greek-Catholic Church; and at the Jesse Lee Home, an establishment of the Methodist Society, native and half-bred female children are cared for, and instructed in domestic management and industry.

Very respectfully,

James G. Blaine

Special Agent.
